Mixed Media Creations Named Merit Winner In HOW International Design Awards
The Amelia Stationery Package was selected as one of the winning designs from across the globe

LEWISVILLE, TX (Jan. 19, 2017) – The Amelia Stationery Package, a project crafted by local design agency, Mixed Media Creations (MMC), was named as a Merit winner and selected from more than 1,000 entries, in the most recent HOW International Design Awards. This prestigious competition, sponsored by HOW magazine, recognizes excellence and every year honors entries from all over the world.

HOW’s editorial and design team—along with notable judges including Sagi Haviv, Mona Patel and Magnus Berg—evaluated the entries and selected winning projects that will gain international exposure in the Spring 2017 issue of the award-winning HOW magazine and online at HOWDesign.com.

“We are thrilled to have received this Merit honor from the HOW International Design Awards,” commented Susie Carter, Founder and Owner of Mixed Media Creations. “The Amelia Stationery Package, which was creatively compiled by our dedicated team, is just one of many exciting designs we are proud to have included in our vibrant client portfolio.”

Background on the Amelia Stationery Package entry:

Previously known as Ten Faxon Apartments, this multi-family property offers the perfect balance of big city excitement and suburban convenience. Located in Quincy, MA, the Greystar property targets commuters of all ages that want an upscale, contemporary high-rise community - without the Boston prices.

Recently renamed “The Amelia” in honor of Amelia Earhart’s assistance designing the local airport, the community now needed a brand to match. Using soft colors, the Amelia Stationery Package brings a clean and modern touch to the classic, yet timeless feel of the 20s and 30s.
