In North Texas, 1 in 2 students is at-risk of dropping out of school. These students face barriers to education including hunger, lack of academic support, juvenile delinquency, lack mental health support, and basic needs such as school supplies and clothing. When students are faced with insurmountable barriers between them and a successful education, this is where Communities In Schools steps in to help.

Communities In Schools Of North Texas partners with schools, the community, and individual volunteers to serve over 4,000 students each year in 37 of our local schools who are at the greatest risk of dropping out. By implementing an evidence-based model of integrated support, we are 99% successful at keeping kids in school and on track for graduation.

Sincerely,

Jan Brooks and Lynn Young
Tournament Co-Chairs
